

The Independent Journal of Teaching and Learning Confirmation of submission for review

I, the undersigned, hereby confirm that the work I did on the paper, the title of which can be found below, is my own, original contribution. Where I have used the words and ideas of others, I have acknowledged them accordingly. I also confirm that this paper has not been published before and that it is not being considered for publication by any other publication. Finally, I confirm that I will not submit this paper for publication to any other publication until my paper has been rejected by the Editors of the IJTL. I thus submit this paper for review to The Independent Journal of Teaching and Learning (IJTL).

Full first and last name(s) of author:

Institutional affiliation(s) of author:

Paper title:

Country of author:

Signature of author:

Date:

NOTE: Should there be multiple authors for a single paper, each author must complete this form individually. For submission purposes, it is recommended that the forms be collated and uploaded as a single file – that is, a single submission may have a number of these forms attached to it.